DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION.

Cured by a Prescription of a Specialist Which Is Now Offered to the Public.

fered to the Public.

We sometimes think that even women themselves don't know what havoe stomach trouble pays with the best of their constitutions. Aside from the disturbance in the stomach itself, it causes interference of heaithful menstruation, fainting spells, lassitude, headache, heartburn, etc. And yet women are so very careless about indigestion and things of that kind. If your stomach is in the habit of getting out of order don't trust to luck that it will get better, but at once supply yourself with a forein box of EUPEPSIA TABLETS. If they don't set you right, you can get your money back, for they are guaranteed to cure. Mrs. Eurlison of illinois let stomach troubles run along without paying any attention to them, and the result was that for two years she had to live on milk and bread. But in spite of everything she can consider herself fortunate to have brought EUPEPSIA TABLETS to her aid, for she writes us that she now eats everything. Here is Mrs. Burlison's own letter:

For two years I have not been able to eat anything except sweet milk and bread. After taking thing except sweet milk and bread. After taking

For two years I have not been able to eat anything except sweet milk and bread. After taking three boxes of your tablets I can eat anything I want. I shall traile your medicine to all my riends, and I hope God will bless you in your sood work.—Mrs. Nancy Burlison, Licke Creek, Yates Officeholders Were on Hand With Fulsome Promises to Save Defeat—A Weak County Ticket.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Nashville, Ill., April 6.—The battle in the Washington County Republican County Convention, which was expected to be sensational and titter, resulted in a peaceful milkshake. The resolutions damn Yates with the briefest riention possible—indeed, Yates isn't mentioned. But the delegations to State and Senatorial conventions are equally divided between the two factions. Washington County has been showing beavy Democratic gains in late years, and in 1900 the Republicans lost one or two county officers. The Recrevelt party is scared into a it every time a shadow of a fight is suggested on any proposition in the party.

The convention to-day was overwhelming ly for Mason, yet he was practically sold out to the Yales enemy Perimaster Wiese, chairman of the Committee on Resolutions. and T. B. Needles, number of the Dawes Indian Commission, were responsible, in

The Yntes leaders through C. B. Gelger The Yates leaders through C. B. Gelger scattered a score of promises to young Nashville Republicans before the primarles yesterday. They are pledged jobs at Chester and Anna and the World's Fair. The promises had the sight effect. The young men descended then Needles and Wiese in force and demanded that the Yates-Hopkins faction be given a show, threatening all sorts of evils to the party and to the county ticket if the demand was refused.

Postmaster only five days, and it is alleged he was appointed by Senator Mason on a promise to carry the county for Mason to-day. He will have a hard time convincing Mason that he did the best he could. The result was a substantial victory for C. B. Geiger, the Yates district leader.

"We commend and support the national and State administrations."

That was the text of the declaration on that subject. Of course McKinley and Roosevelt were remembered and instructions given for Rodenberg for Congress, Begole for State Treasurer, Millspaugh for Clerk of the Appellate Court and Kimzy for Superintendent of Public Instruction. The United States Senators received this cordial mention: "We indorse the wise and statesmanlike actions of our Senators, Shelby M. Cullom and William E. After being admitted to the Congregational church at that place, he engaged for some time in evangelistic work. Later he went to the Hawaiian Is ands, and from there to San Francisco. After work among the Japanese of Fris o he went to Chicago and entered the Moody Rible Institute. Being unable to use the English language sufficiently to continue his theological studies with success at the Moody Institute, he was brought to Shurtleff College by Miss Olive M. Blount, a returned missionary from Japan. Taniguchi has been at Shurtleff since November, and is making rapid progress with the English tongue. Recently he espoused the Baptist faith and was admitted to membership in the First Baptist Church upon a relation of his religious experience. His baptism yesterday completed the necessary requirements for full membership.

Since coming to Shurtleff, Taniguchi has officiated at a number of Japanese teas given by society folk of the Altons. At these events he has worn his native costume.

JAPANESE STUDENT ST. PATRICK'S PARISH HAS BEEN DIVIDED

J. K. Taniguchi of Shurtleff College | Father Charles Gilmartin Will Be the Rector of the New Parish, Known as Sacred Heart.

> Father Charles Gilmartin, assistant rector of St. Patrick's Parish, East St. Louis, vesterday morning at high mass told the parishioners of the church that the parish had been divided and that the new parish would be known henceforth as Sacred Heart Parish and would include all of that part of East St. Louis north of the north side of Pennsylvania avenue. The division of the parish takes effect next Sunday. Father Gilmartin will be the rector of the new parish.

A vacated storeroom on Seventh street between Baugh and Bowman avenues has been selected as the place in which services will be held temporarily. The first service parish. will be held temporarily. The first service, will be held next Sunday. Meetings will be held there next week by the members of the new parish to provide ways and means for the erection of a church. Father Glimartin has received much encouragement and expects that within a year a bandsome edifice will be erected in the new handsome edifice will be erected in the neparish.
In his talk yesterday Father Glimartin told those of his new parish that he would told those of his new parish that he would be glad to welcome them, but that if any of them were in arrears for pew rent to St. Patrick's Parish they would have to settle in full before they could become members of his parish.

Bishop Janssen's plan, it is said, is to divide the present St. Patrick's Parish and also take a since of the new parish. This will make three parishes out of the old St. Patrick's Parish. This siep is made necessary because of the rapid growth of the city toward the east and north. These plans have not been definitely settled.

Yates, 250; anti-Yates, 219.
In the State Convention in 1900 the Hancey-Yates side mustered in the same counties a total of 27, while the Reeves-Carter side tailied only 202. It will be netteed that the Yates faction this year has lost on the net returns in the same countles over two years ago, while the opposition to Yates has made a sight gain. These estimates are based on returns from forty-four counties, and include the fellowing: Peora, Marshall, DuPage, Franklin, Lee, Shelby, Fayette, Washington and Pulaski, which held county conventions within the past two weeks. In the article which was printed in The Republic of March 25, Union, where there is a contesting delegation, was given to the anti-Yates faction. I am convinced that that delegation should be placed with the Yates side, and it is included in the Governor's total above. Douglas is also listed with the Governor as a unit. In the preceding table it was divided, but information from Mr. Eckhardt of Tuscola, who is reliable authority, forces the conclusion that little Douglas is a part of the Cannon assets and will be swang exactly where Mr. Cannon orders.

While the Governor has the advantage today, after the conventions of the coming week have concluded their labors he will be in a minority.

"The Earth Belongs to Vital, Living People, and These Should Act as One When Inefficient Powers Check Advancement."

Berlin, April 6 .- "This bequest shows the wide reach of Cecil Rhodes's mind and his vision of the future," said Emperor William to Doctor Von Lucanus, the chief of his Majejsty's civil Cabinet, who alluded to the will of Mr. Rhodes during an audience with Emperor William yesterday morning. It was pointed out to his Majesty that Mr. Rhodes, while leaving precise directions as to the selection of the beneficiaries of the Rhodes scholarships in other countries, the selection of the beneficiaries of the fifteen scholarships set aside for Germans, had been left to the discretion of Emperor William.

The bequests of Mr. Rhodes are regarded at court as constituting an enduring impulse to good feeling among Germany. Great Britain and the United States, and the colonies of these countries, and as giving more substance to the grouping of those

"The earth belongs to the vital, living people, and these should act as one when inefficient powers check advancement," is another utterance attributed to the German Emperor, when his Majesty was speaking of Prince Henry's trip, and the need of a better understanding with the United States,
The inclusion of Germany in Mr.

Rhodes's aims, as set forth in his will, bas brought out some considerate expressions concerning his imperial purposes, even the anglophobe journals, although most of the commentators on his purposes "Why have I not such a Minister," Emperor William is said to have exclaimed, after an interview with Cecil Rhodes in 1859. This remark is now widely reproduced, and it enables the opposition paragraphists to revile the present Ministry.

in Texas, where, he says, he had many exciting adventures while trying to learn the cattle business. The cowboys took h'm for a "tenderfoot" and attempted his education in the ways of the plains.

Taylor says that during the Christmas holidays one night a dozen cowboys forced the door of his cabin and compelled him to dance and sing for their amusement, meanwhile treating him to a display of target practice, occasionally the bullets coming so close to his feet that the dance was greatly accelerated.

Mr. Taylor was forced to go south on account of his health which, he says, he has completely regained. He will soon assume his duties in the ticket office. While in Texas he was employed on the Matador ranch, near Panhandie City.

GLENDALE CHAPEL DEDICATED.

New Institution Will Be Conducted by Kirkwood Presbyterians.

The new Glendale Protestant Chapel was dedicated yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The chapel is a frame structure and cost about $80. It was built on a plot of ground in Glendale, St. Louis County, that was given by W. J. Williamson, and will be conducted under the care of the First Presbyterian Church in Kirkwood. The chapel will be used mainly as a Sunday school.

An interesting programme was rendered at the dedication. It was opened with an organ prelude by Professor James Quaries, organist of the Lindell Avenue M. E. Church, followed by prayer by W. M. Hezlep, superintendent of the Glendale Presbyterian Sunday school. Addresses were then delivered by W. H. Herrick of the St. Louis Presbytery and W. J. Semelroth, editor of the International Sunday School Evangel. Mrs. Semelroth and the West Presbyterian Church Sunday School Quartet rendered vocal selections.

Church Sunday School Quartet rendered vocal selections.

The Reverend F. L. Ferguson, D. D., pastor of the West Presbyterian Church, delivered the dedication sermon. The dedication exercises proper were conducted by the Reverend H. C. Evans, D. D. This followed the transferring of the keys of the chapel to C. O. Evans, president of the Board of Trustees of the Kirkwo I Presbyterian Church. The other ministers who participated in the ceremonics were the Reverend D. M. Skilling, pastor of the Webster Groves Presbyterian Church, and the Reverend C. L. Kloss, pastor of the Webster Groves Congregational Church.
